

Doctor Manuel Cachafeiro Vilar

Gastroenterology

Education and Specialty

Doctor Cachafeiro received his medical degree from the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Panama in 1990. In 1996, completed an Internal Medicine residency at the Doctor Arnulfo Arias Madrid Metropolitan Hospital Complex of the Caja del Seguro Social. Later, in the same year, completed a fellowship in Pancreatic diseases and Gastrointestinal Motility at the Department of Gastroenterology of the Salvador Zubirán National Institute of Nutrition in Mexico and a post graduated course in Liver and Alcohol. In 1997 completed an update course in Gastroenterology at the Mexican Association of Gastroenterology in Morelia, Michoacán, Mexico. In 2000, attended a course in Gastroenterology and Digestive Endoscopy at the Salvador Zubirán Institute. Attended the European Congress of Gastroenterology in the Netherlands in 2001, the congress of the American Gastroenterology Association in San Francisco, California, in 2002, and the Central American Congress of Gastroenterology in Honduras in 2004.

Major Positions held

Doctor Cachafeiro served as Chief of residents in Gastroenterology at the Salvador Zubirán National Institute of Nutrition in Mexico, from 1999 through 2000. He also was a Clinical Instructor of Gastroenterology at the Pan – American University, in Mexico DF, in 1999. Chief of residents of the Internal Medicine service of the Doctor Arnulfo Arias Madrid Metropolitan Hospital Complex of the Caja del Seguro Social, from 1995 through 1996. From 1994 through 1996, he was the assistant professor of Clinical Propaedeutics and Physiopathology of the medical department of the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Panama.

Memberships

Doctor Cachafeiro has been published by the Magazine of the Caja del Seguro Social, Clinical Research Magazine, the Mexican Gastroenterology Magazine and the Panamanian Medical Magazine.

Publications

Doctor Cachafeiro is a member of the American College of Gastroenterology, the American Gastroenterology Association and the Panamanian Society of Gastroenterology.