

Doctor Marcos Quintín Acosta Herrera

Nefrology

Education and Specialty

Doctor Acosta received his medical Diploma from the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Panama in 1989. In 1997, he graduated as an Internal Medicine Specialist from the Jackson Memorial Hospital of the University of Miami. Later that same year he was certified as an Internal Medicine Graduated by the American Board of Internal Medicine. In 1999 he received the title of Subspecialty Fellow as a Nephrology Specialist from the Jackson Memorial Hospital of the University of Miami and later in that year he was certified as a Nephrology Specialist by the American Board of Internal Medicine. In 2000 he finished a specialized training in Chronically Renal Replacement Therapy at the Gambro Health Care of the Jackson Memorial Hospital of the University of Miami. In 1994 he was certified as qualified to provide Basic and Advanced Cardiac Vital Support.

Doctor Acosta has a license to practice as a Physician in the State of Florida in U.S.A.

Major Positions Held

From 1993 through 1994, Doctor Acosta was the Chief of Residents and Internal Medicine Interns at the Santo Tomás Hospital, Panama.

Memberships

Doctor Acosta is a member of the American Society of Nephrology, a member of the International Society of Peritoneal Dialysis and a member of the Panamanian Medical Association in America.

Publications

He has been published by the Journal of the American Society of Nephrology.